Year 2 English Enrichment Course (10 – 13 July)

The Year 2 English Enrichment Course (EEC) is specifically designed to enhance students' speaking, reading, and writing abilities through a wide range of materials, including articles, videos, and slides that cover topics in Science, Geography, and History. By incorporating these engaging subjects and resources, our primary goal is to nurture creativity in our students while expanding their knowledge, understanding, and appreciation of the world and their place within it.

Through active participation in this course, students will be encouraged to:

- utilise their listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills to explore different historical periods in comparison to the present
- acquire knowledge about our world through active engagement in listening, speaking, reading, and writing activities.
- reflect on and effectively document their learning experiences, fostering skills in organization and writing.
