Year 5 Autumn Holiday Writing Course (17 – 21 April 2023)

Year 5 autumn holiday writing course (Week 2) aims to enhance students' writing abilities by focusing on both technical and creative writing skills as a part of the selective school exam next year. The curriculum aligns with the current English standards and will address areas such as grammar, spelling, and punctuation in relation to different text types. The course is designed to help children improve their writing skills in various genres such as narrative, descriptive, persuasive, and explanatory writing. The goal of the course is to address the individual needs of each student, thereby promoting their confidence and writing proficiency across all academic subjects.
