Artists of the Future

2026 Drawing Competition - Rules & Conditions

- Eligibility:
Open to children aged 5 to 12 years old (Years K–6). No entry fee required — just bring your creativity!
- Theme: Finding Places Not on the Map
- This inspiring theme invites young artists to imagine and draw a magical place that only they can dream up. It could have rainbow rivers, floating mountains, tiny friendly dragons, or anything your imagination creates. Draw this special world that no map shows—because it lives only in your mind.
- Artistic Medium:
Create your drawing by hand using watercolours, crayons, pens, pencils, pastel, or other traditional materials.
- Size and Format:
All artwork must be submitted on A3-sized paper.
- Submission Deadline:
Entries must be received by Friday, 30 October 2026.
- Submission Process:
Submit your artwork along with a completed entry form to the Pre-Uni New College Head Office. Each participant may submit up to two artworks.
- Copyright and Usage:
By entering the competition, you agree that Pre-Uni New College holds the copyright to all submitted drawings. We reserve the right to use, exhibit, and publish your artwork across various media platforms.
- Judging and Results:
Entries will be reviewed by a Panel of Judges, and all decisions are final. Winners will be notified via email in late November 2026.
- Prize:
Scholarships awarded through this competition apply exclusively to 2027 Term 1 tuition fees for the WEMT, WEMG, EMG, EM and Year 7 courses. To redeem the scholarship, recipients must complete full-term payment by the early bird payment deadline. This offer cannot be combined with any other discounts.

Competition Prize
